WORDS OF WELCOME

Family and friends, guests and visitors, we welcome you to worship on this Thanksgiving Sunday as we take time to celebrate and be grateful for all that God has done. Welcome to Blythwood.

PRAY FOR WORLD FOOD DAY

God of Peace, our Jehovah Jireh,

You have called us to be the peacemakers in a world full of conflict; help us to rise to this occasion.

We pray for the millions of people who face hunger, all too regularly – especially those whose food insecurity is caused by violence. Bring them comfort and grant them safety and provisions.

We pray for tables to be filled with nutritious food while being surrounded by warm hearts.

And we pray for those who do not know hunger, that their hearts will be filled with compassion for the people who do. That we all seek the simple justice for everyone to have enough to eat.

Help us to remember to pray for peace, both near and far, and guide us to be your instruments of harmony and justice in both big and small ways.

Bless those who grow the food around the world; bless their efforts and the soil on which they work. Protect the seeds that they have planted from the violence that comes from other people as well as from nature itself.

May their harvests be plentiful and shared freely.

In the name of Jesus, the Prince of Peace,
Amen.

Pray for humanitarian workers providing food in dangerous situations, that they be encouraged and find the needed supplies.

Pray for CBM's programs with small-scale farmers, that they will experience harvests to feed their families and earn a livelihood.

Remember to pray for peace and that global leaders seek peace above wealth and power.

Rev. David Thomas

Call to Worship

Leader: We have heard with our ears, O God, our ancestors have told us, what deeds you performed in the days of old;

People: for not by their own sword did they win the land, nor did their own arm give them victory;

All: but your right hand, and your arm, and the light of your countenance, for you delighted in them.
